

behavior that could indicate illness or injury. Animal Care and Service Workers can work in boarding kennels, pet stores, animal shelters, veterinary hospitals, stables, laboratories, aquariums and natural aquatic habitats, and zoological parks.

Find a Health Education School:

Use the red search box in the menu above, to find schools and colleges in your area that offer Veterinary Education Programs.

Below is a list of some of the various types of health career fields: